“Autumn” only occurs once in the Bible. In Jude 1:12, false teachers are compared to “autumn trees without fruit,” implying that autumn should be a fruitful season, the most abundant of the year. How can we take advantage of the “autumn of life”?

There’s a lot of unwelcome change in our world. Moral and societal changes bother us most when we turn on our television or glance at the magazines. We’re painfully aware our kids are growing up in a world far different from the one we knew as children.

As our children are back to school and our families adjust to their new fall routines, it’s more important than ever to ensure that our families spend quality time with God and one other!

How do you make sure that God and your family come first on your busiest of days? Here are a few ideas that you can easily incorporate into your fullest of weeks.

- Set aside time each day to pray for each member of your family. Pray for any individual needs and specific concerns they have. Pray for their salvation and their spiritual growth.
- Make the most of every moment. As you drive your children to school and activities, find out what’s new in their world. At mealtime, invite them to share about their day, listening closely to what they say – and what they don’t. As you shop with your kids or help them with their homework, invite them to share any concerns that are on their minds. Let them know you always have time for them.
- Make time for fun! On the weekends, look for relaxing, wholesome activities that the entire family can enjoy. Be sure to include seasonal activities that remind your family of the beautiful world that God created and the countless ways that God blesses us each and every day!

Stay Blessed,

Just a few reminders for the school year:

- Please remain in your car during carpool, use the parking lot behind building 200 to buckle your child.
- Georgia Law requires all children (under age 8) to ride in rear car seat.
- Make sure your child has a change of clothes in their book bag.
- Carpool starts at 8:45; school promptly begins at 9:00. Tardiness tends to disrupt the class.

Please, let us know of any prayer request. We pray for you and your family every day! Thank you for sharing and trusting your precious child with us as they continue to naturally bless us!!!
