Some Bibles are called red-letter editions. That means the words spoken by Jesus are printed in red. So, if the words of Jesus were printed in red, the actions of Jesus would be printed in black. As you might imagine, you need to read both. You need to know what Jesus said, but you also need to know what He did! Many of the black letters in the Gospel accounts give you the conduct of Christ's life. You need a life lived in the black letters! The mission of Christ's life drove His conduct. Jesus loved God and others, and He made disciples by going, baptizing, and teaching because His mission was to "make disciples." Jesus' behavior was intentional and strategic. Jesus was behaving in such a way that a certain outcome would result. How is the conduct of your life these days? Is the behavior of your life consistent with your mission? Christ's mission? Are the priorities of your life matching up with the priorities of Christ's life?

Sign up for Pathways 2 "Walk Like Jesus Walked" at The Hub and discover the priorities of Jesus. Pathways 1 "Live Like Jesus Lived" will begin on Sunday evening in just a few weeks. I encourage you to take Pathways in order. However, it is not required.

Finally, thank you for your patience with all the Sanctuary renovations! My heart is also so full with all the volunteerism and involvement. The favor of God is on Summit Church! Let's be wise about our steps. See you Sunday @ Summit!
