Just For The Love of Jesus, part 3

I have many flaws. One of my greatest is that from time to time I let the Neigh-Sayers eat my lunch. I can be in a church with thousands of people but if three people are upset, the Devil will use that in my life to cause me to focus on the unholy Trinity. Now if you think I'm writing this just for you, you would be wrong. In fact, if everyone of you stopped reading this, I would still read it because Jeff Merritt needs to read this. I know I'm not alone, because you can't let criticism destroy your spirit.

Let me tell you that when criticism comes: Jesus will defend you! If your motive is pure and your heart is right, then Jesus will defend you! Look at Mark 14:6 where Jesus said, "Leave her alone! Why do you bother her? She is doing a good deed for Me!" Look people, if your heart is right and your motive is pure, you WILL be criticized. But know this: the one that you are trying to please and serve, if He is pleased with you, then the Lord Jesus Christ will defend you. And who else do you want for your defense attorney other than the Lord Jesus Christ!

THEY have the problem, not YOU. Mary wasn't the problem. It was Old Windbag Judas. Mary wasn't the problem. It was Thief Judas. Mary wasn't the problem. It was these Pharisees in the Temple and not the eternal. Listen, these kind of people have problems with everybody. They would fight with a stop sign. Do you know who I'm talking about? Look, if they fight in church, they fight in their homes with the Home Owners Association. They fight at school (their kids are always right and their teachers are always wrong!) They are that way everywhere! Here is the problem. We try to help and turn out to be as bad as them! So let them go! Because you are not the problem, they are.

Keep GAZING at Jesus! When Mary broke that perfume and Snake Judas hissed and said, "Why didn't we sell this and give it to the poor?"

She didn't even hear that garbage because she was caught up in loving Jesus. When she was pouring out this perfume, she was worshipping Jesus because she thought Jesus was worth this gift! You see, so many of us think that we worship thru singing, but that is just part of it. And by the way, I have a problem with some of you out there, when we sing some of you don't sing. You say, "Well, I can't sing." Well, that's ok. I can't sing. Rick Black can't. Anthony Smith can't. But we still sing. Do you know why we sing? Because we have a song in our heart! And those that don't sing, you don't have a song. Do you know why I sing? Because I think The Lord Jesus is worth me singing. He is worth whatever I do. And Mary broke that Alabaster box because she thought Jesus was worth it to her! What is Jesus worth to you?

Summit Faith Explorers
