Pastor Jeff Merritt

Happy Easter! He is Risen! I pray that over the next few days your heart be stirred for the affections of Jesus Christ. When was the last time your heart was stirred for Jesus? We have become a culture of people easily stirred for other things besides Jesus Christ. Just read the comments after someone posts an opinion on social media. We have become a people satisfied to be living with stirred up minds and unsettled hearts. Yet Jesus desires for our hearts to be stirred and our minds settled. As Christ followers, we get so easily entangled with this world and all its junk! We should be a people that have minds and hearts that “the things of earth will grow strangely dim, in the light of His glory and grace!” I pray that each of you seek to have your hearts stirred for your affections for Jesus Christ and your minds settled on the sovereignty of God. He is Risen. And He is in control!

I also want to remind you of the change in schedule for Easter Sunday. The existing Sunday Service @ 10:30 am will be at 9 AM on Easter Sunday (Worship Center). The Contemporary “Sunday Night @ 5” Service will be at 11 AM on Easter Sunday (300 Building). Childcare (5 and under) will be provided for BOTH services.

An official decision has not been made yet about what happens after Easter on the schedule. The online survey was very helpful (Thank you!). Childcare is a big factor in this decision, folks. I will give you insight to where I am leaning: results are coming in that most families needing childcare prefer the 11 AM Contemporary Service. Results also indicate that no one will attend a 9 AM Contemporary Service needing childcare. Remember that the vision is to reach more families with children. So, since we agree as a Church family that everyone will need to sacrifice a little to help reach one more for Christ, we must do what is needed to accomplish the mission. This is why our hearts must be stirred for Jesus and our minds settled on the vision.

I believe if the next two weeks don't stir our hearts and settle our minds for the Gospel of Christ, we, as a church, will drift into an existence of wandering like the Hebrews in the desert. Every day is one day closer to the return of the King. Now is the time for Summit to recommit to the reason we were planted so many years ago!

This Sunday, I will preach my heart out on 6 things that was nailed to the Cross of Jesus. Too many Christians are struggling in their own limited Christianity because too many Christians have a limited view of the cross. We were made and saved to “glory in the cross”. Invite someone this week and Easter Sunday. I've already invited my neighbor and his family. Now it's your turn.
