Pastor Jeff Merritt

Dear Church Family,

When Jesus walked this earth, Rome had brought peace and prosperity to the Middle East. Much of this was the result of the toleration and assimilation of the many cultures and religions of their conquered lands. On a positive note, this allowed Jesus, His disciples, and the early church to travel and spread the Gospel in relative safety. Negatively, this assimilation of beliefs led to much debauchery and an idea that anything goes.

Within this culture and climate of sin and self-indulgence, Jesus shared the absolute truth. A single belief system in the One True God and the idea that one could only gain access to Him in one way, through His Son Jesus, was revolutionary, to many repugnant and narrow-minded, but to some a breath of fresh air. This Gospel gained Him followers but also, got Him crucified for blasphemy.

Jesus proved the veracity of His claims and the depth of His love by dying on the cross and through His resurrection three days later! This event, the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ, has impacted the world far beyond any other event in human history. This Gospel has the same impact today as it did 2,000 years ago. It is revolutionary. To some, it is repugnant and narrow-minded. To still others, it is a breath of fresh air, a message of salvation and grace. A message of life!

Happy Easter Everyone!
Pastor Jeff
